BNY Investments is a leading global asset manager under BNY, a global financial services platforms company with more than 240 years of history. BNY Investments manages US$2.2tn of assets across 35 countries through multiple specialist investment subsidiaries of distinct asset class and investment strategy coverage.

Walter Scott is an Edinburgh-based boutique global equity investment manager established in 1983 by Walter Grant Scott. Walter Scott adopts a team-based approach that specialises in undertaking in-depth bottom-up fundamental research to find growth companies that have the ability to consistently compound wealth over the long term. Walter Scott was acquired by BNY in 2006 as a subsidiary.

The BNY Mellon Global Leaders Fund is an actively managed fund seeking to achieve long-term capital growth by investing primarily in a concentrated portfolio of global large cap equities, with no geographic and currency constraints. The fund adopts a long-term (3-5 years) investment approach with low portfolio turnover, based on rigorous fundamental bottom-up company analysis with the aim of identifying companies with superior wealth generation prospects. Companies are regarded as a "global leader" based on 2 key criteria, that are those with strong or market leading position with a business model geared towards sustaining that position through competitive advantage, and those with within an industry sector with compelling prospects for expansion. ESG evaluation is integrated throughout the investment process. The fund runs a highly concentrated portfolio of ~25 holdings.
